

the village VOICE

GOSPEL PLASMA

CHRIST A-GO-GO 2000!

SUNDAY
SEPT. 3
AT THE KNITTING FACTORY

8 p.m. $10
74 Leonard Street

www.knittingfactory.com

chrifagogo@hotmail.com

SOUL-JUNK CHARLES GAYLE THEREFORE WHITE TRASH INC. (ORCHESTRA) JAI AGNISH

live music and short films. your signature: Fire, and a Mary-Legged Creature

sponsored by IAM, International Arts Movement notes: www.fygirlweb.com/plasma.html

"GOSPEL PLASMA": SOUL JUNK+JAI AGNISH Soul Junk's latest, 1956, could easily be the soundtrack to a drive-by baptism. Think Busta Rhymes at the wheel, the Beastie Boys flickin' his ear from the middle seat, and Pavement in the way-back—all high on the "word" and cruisin' in a phat Custom van with God as their co-pilot. Jai Agnish goes to the same church, but spends his Sunday afternoons alone. He just might be the reincarnation of Nick Drake, who this time around decided to lock himself in his room and OD on a sampler, guitar, and some Fisher-Price instruments. With Charles Gayle, Therefore, and White Trash Inc. Knitting Factory, Main Space, at 8. (Switzer)